

Placement line is a line (grey in above main diagrams) stitched on your stabilizer to know where to place your fabric. It can be done in any color as you will not see it on the finished product.

Add back felt here

