

Tack down

Add back fabric here on top of hoop good side face down

Tack down line is a line (grey in above main diagrams) stitched on your main fabric to keep from shifting during embroidery process. It is recommended that it is done as the same color as your main fabric.

Placement line is a line stitched on your stabilizer/fabric to tell you where to place you fabric. This can be done in any color as it will be covered with your fabric.